 Registrations Open
3rd Annual
PaCE Master Class
[Parent & Community Engagement in Learning]

with

Dr Anne Henderson
Annenberg Institute for School Reform, Washington DC, USA

Dr Henderson will present a full-day workshop on understanding the importance of parent and community engagement with schools and, in particular, its relationship to student learning and outcomes. Anne will present the research and provide practical knowledge to assist teachers, schools and parents in this work.

Date: Monday 3 September 2012
Location: Campbelltown Catholic Club (Accommodation Avail.)
Time: 9.30 to 4pm
Registration: www.partners4learning.edu.au under ‘News & Events’
Cost: FREE (Lunch and refreshments also provided). Places Limited.

Who are these workshops for?
National Smarter Schools Partnership Schools, teachers, school leaders, diocesan staff, parent leaders and those who work with parents and communities across NSW schools. Representatives from all school sectors welcome.

NSW Institute of Teachers Professional Development
For teaching staff, this Master Class is NSW IT Accredited Professional Development addressing Elements 6 & 7 of the Teaching Standards. Please indicate when registering if you need a certificate of attendance.

Relevant Chapters will be provided to registered attendees. If you would like to buy the book it can be purchased from Amazon.

2012 Master Class generously supported by: